Meet the Stechers – A Family Tradition

The G&G of G&G Stecher Farms stands for the two brothers, Gary and Glenn, who carry on their family's farming tradition. Stecher Farms was started in 1955 when Gary and Glenn's parents purchased the land. The two brothers were born and raised on the 110 acres farm in Swedesboro, NJ. G&G Stecher Farms is truly a family run business with 4 generations currently living on the farm. Glenn and Gary are excited that their children wish to continue farming and will uphold the family tradition.

G&G Stecher Farms

G&G Stecher Farms sells tomatoes, melons, sweet corn and squash. They also sell flowers in the spring and fall. In June of 2004, the brothers added Brandywine tomatoes to their selection. This year also marks the grand opening of a new farm stand on the farm.
