Sun Valley Orchards Gloucester County Swedesboro, NJ

Meet Joe Marino – Taking Pride in Family Tradition

Joe Marino and his father, Russell Marino, are responsible for upholding almost 100 years of a quality reputation in fresh produce. Sun Valley Orchards has been a family run business for 4 generations. Joe and Russell Marino take extra steps to maintain the 1,200 acres farm in order to exceed the expectations of customers.

Sun Valley Orchards – A Tradition of Quality

Sun Valley Orchards produces a large volume of freestone peaches, cucumbers, squash, pickles, peppers, cantaloupes and tomatoes. Joe and Russell Marino offer their personal quality assurance and make no excuses. They oversee the production process and maintain complete control all the way from planting to distribution. Since Sun Valley's number one goal is a guaranteed longer shelf life, they take steps to ensure the quality of their produce. They believe that temperature management is key in ensuring freshness.

"We take full responsibility for ripe, fresh fruit delivered."
